In addition to the terms and conditions of any Indemnity Agreement or other collateral documents which you have executed this is to notify you that:

- 1. The Indemnitor(s) will have the defendant appear before the court named in the bond, at the date, time and location ordered by the court.
- The indemnitor(s) is responsible for any and all losses or costs of any kind whatsoever which the surety may incur as a result of this undertaking, and any collateral or indemnity given shall also guarantee the payment of all lawful costs incurred by the surety. There should not be any costs or losses provided the defendant does not violate the conditions of the bond and appears on time at all required court hearings.
- Collateral will be returned to the person(s) named in the collateral receipt, or their legal assigns, within 21 days after the surety has received written notice of the discharge of the bond(s) from the court and all lawful costs incurred by the surety have been paid in full. It may take several weeks after the case(s) is disposed of before the court discharges the surety bonds.
